AQUARIUS

21 Jan – 19 Feb It's a battle of the wills for the first and last weeks of January because I contradict your authority. Introduce a fun way of doing what you want me to so that it becomes a game rather than an order. Best day to set boundaries with your little one: 11 January

PISCES 20 Feb – 20 Mar

I'm free-spirited and resent being restricted, at least until the 21st. Introduce me to other children and involve me in group activities where I can explore my talents without feeling confined. Best day to set boundaries with your little one: 9 January

ARIES 21 Mar - 20 April

This is a month of consolidation; I'm eager to absorb information, churn it around in my head and learn lessons that will carry me forward. It's an ideal time to amuse and entertain me with puzzles and construction toys to develop my logic. Best day to set boundaries with your little one: 4 January

TAURUS 21 Apr - 21 May

I may be a bit possessive if there's a new sibling in the home or if someone hangs around my best friend. Other than that I'm fairly intense in whatever I do and become easily absorbed in a topic that interests me. Best day to set boundaries with your little one: 15 January

GEMINI 22 May - 21 June I'm incredibly curious around

17 January and if we go to a public venue, it's advisable to be extra vigilant in case I wonder off to explore. Around the same time I may be somewhat stubborn. Best day to set boundaries with your little one: 17 January

CANCER 22 June – 22 July

Around the 4th I'm determined to do my own thing. I'm exceptionally sensitive and while you need to be firm so I learn right from wrong, please do it in a way that assures me you still love me. Best day to set boundaries with your little one: 25 January

23 July – 23 August

In the first three weeks of January enrol me in activities that will explore and develop my creativity this year. I may be a little downhearted on the 4th January during the partial eclipse but this won't last long. Best day to set boundaries with your little one: 4 January

VIRGO

24 August - 23 Sept

During the first two weeks I'm restlessly eager to play rather than tidy up my room or concentrate for long. After the 14th, I'm more serious and can sit for hours doing puzzles. Best day to set boundaries with your little one: 2 January

LIBRA 24 Sept – 23 Oct

I'm guarded in the first weeks at school or crèche and open up only when I feel more secure in the new environment. If I do connect with a friend, it could be the start of a lasting friendship. Best day to set boundaries with your little one: 28 January

CAPRICORN 22 Dec – 20 Jan The first and last weeks in January can be a little nerve-racking. because I need a fair amount of discipline. But although I resent your rules, I'm learning about "cause and effect". It's a good idea to explain what I've done wrong, and tempt me with rewards if I behave. Best day to set boundaries with your little one: 11 January

SCORPIO

24 Oct – 22 Nov I'm reserved until the 14th, especially if I'm entering a new class or it's my first time in nursery school. After the 15th I'm ready to join the group, all the while keeping my distance while I figure out the other kids. Best day to set boundaries with your little one: 5 January

SAGITTARIUS 24 Oct - 22 Nov

I'm enthusiastic even if it's my first day at school. It may take a while to come to terms with the disciplinary parameters as I value my freedom so much. Patience is definitely one of my lessons to learn. Best day to set boundaries with your little one: 9 January xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx ****
